The defendant has moved to continue the pretrial motion deadline and trial date. Filing No. 110. Defense counsel explains additional time is needed to receive and review discovery before deciding if pretrial motions should be filed. Based on the showing set forth in the defendant's motion, the court finds the motion should be granted.

IT IS ORDERED:

- 1) The defendant's unopposed amended motion to continue, (filing no. 110), is granted.
- 2) The defendant's pretrial motions and briefs shall be filed on or before May 31, 2011.
- 3) Trial of this case is set to commence before the Honorable Richard G. Kopf at 9:00 a.m. on July 18, 2011 or as soon thereafter as the case may be called, for a duration of 5 trial days, in Courtroom 1, United States Courthouse, Lincoln, Nebraska. Jury selection will be held at commencement of trial.
- 4) The ends of justice served by granting defendant's motion to continue outweigh the interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial, and the additional time arising as a result of the granting of the motions, the time between April 29, 2011 and May 31, 2011, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirements of the Speedy Trial Act, for the reason that the parties require additional time to adequately prepare the case, taking into consideration due diligence of counsel, the novelty and complexity of the case, and the fact that the failure to grant additional time might result in a miscarriage of justice. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A) & (B).
